
Publications

Laboratory Communiqué

The Laboratory Communiqué is a publication released quarterly by Billings Clinic Laboratory Services as an information tool for medical staff and laboratorians. The Communiqué will cover a variety of subjects such as updates to current diagnostic testing, changes in reference ranges or methodologies, new in-house testing, compliance updates, and special events.